

Below are follow up questions for you to consider related to today's message To God Be the Glory!
Psalm 115.

Discussion Questions:

1. When you think of God's glory, what are some of the things that first come to mind?
2. God deserves glory for so many reasons. What are some reasons you think of that weren't talked about in the sermon?
3. Can you relate to C.S. Lewis' struggle? Is it hard to understand why God cares so much about His own glory? What has been helpful for you as you think about this?
4. What are some of the results of idolatry in our lives?
5. What is an idol? Give some examples of good things in life that can become idols.
6. What idols do you currently struggle with?
7. How can personal success and achievement lead to a sense that we ourselves are god?
8. What are possible signs in an individual's life that point to the fact that success is an idol?

Quote from the Message:

"Idolatry is trusting in created things rather than the Creator for our hope and happiness, significance and security." New City Catechism

Songs from Sunday:

Grace Alone - Dustin Kensrue

Not To Us - Jesse Reeves and Chris Tomlin

O Praise the Name - Benjamin Hastings, Dean Ussher, and Marty Sampson

In Christ Alone - Keith Getty and Stuart Townend

Who You Say I Am - Ben Fielding and Reuben Morgan

Glorious Day - Jason Ingram, Jonathan Smith, Kristian Stanfill, and Sean Curran

Worship Leader: Ryan Holland

To watch or listen to the message audio and read the bulletin, click here. To watch the announcements, click here.

Next week: Look What God Has Done! Psalm 116