

Below are discussion questions for you to consider related to today's message "A Diverse Church" from Romans 16:1-16.

Discussion Questions:

1. Why not skip passages like Romans 16:1-16?
2. What do we learn about God and how He preserves the nations of all people in these passages?
3. Some people say that Christianity is oppressive to women and dangerous to diversity. How would this passage help you to respond to those ideas?
4. How does salvation in Christ make life in this new family possible?
5. Where in your world are you hoping to welcome someone as Christ has welcomed you?

Quotes from the Message:

"My prayer is that this book will help you let God use your home, apartment, dorm room, front yard, community gymnasium, or garden for the purpose of making strangers into neighbors and neighbors into family. Because that is the point—building the church and living like family, the family of God." - Rosaria Butterfield, The Gospel Comes with a House Key, p. 14.

"Christianity is the most diverse, multiethnic, and multicultural movement in all of history." - Rebecca McLaughlin, Confronting Christianity, p. 45.
