2. What are your fears telling you about the danger you are in?
3. What are your fears telling you about the future?
4. Why does it not work to simply ignore fear, or "stop it"?
5. What does Isaiah 41:10 teach us about God?
6. How does God's presence help displace fear?
7. How do the "I will's" of Isaiah 41:10 bring comfort and hope?
8. What opportunities does this time present to us to love our neighbors and be ambassadors of hope?
9. How does Jesus' resurrection give you hope for tomorrow?
10. What does Jesus' incarnation teach us about how he views putting himself in a dangerous place like earth? What difference can this make for us next week?
