

Thank you for joining us online today! The message today, "Am I a Neighbor?" from Luke 10:25-37, focuses on how to care for others.

There are no discussion questions for today's message because we want to encourage you instead to contact someone in the church to talk about the message, how you could apply it in this particular season, and pray for one another.

A Practical Way to Love Your \(Self-Isolated\) Neighbor by Elijah Elkins

Quotes from the Message:

"Jesus thinks the place to find the most important answer to the most important question ever asked is in the most important book ever written." - Thabiti Anyabwile

"We should think of the whole world as our parish, and all of mankind as our neighbor. We should seek to be the friend of everyone who is oppressed or neglected or afflicted or sick or in prison or poor or an orphan or a pagan or a slave or a mentally ill or starving or dying. We should show such worldwide fellowship, doubtless wisely, so that we should never need to be ashamed. The ungodly may sneer at this and call it extravagant or fanatical. But we need not mind that. To be friendly to everyone in this way is to show something of the mind that was in Christ." - J.C. Ryle
