Call to Worship

Praise the Lord!

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the works of the Lord,

studied by all who delight in them.

Full of splendor and majesty is his work,

and his righteousness

endures forever.

He has caused his wondrous works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and merciful.

He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.

He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the inheritance of the nations.

The works of his hands are faithful and just;

all his precepts are trustworthy;
they are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.
He sent redemption to his people;
he has commanded his covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is his name!
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding.

His praise endures forever!
Psalm 111

between us

How high the mountain I

Tore through the shadows of my soul

The work is finished the end

Who could imagine so great a mercy

What heart could fathom such boundless grace

The God of Ages stepped

The cross has spoken I am forgiven

The King of Kings calls me
His own

Beautiful Savior, I'm yours forever

Pleasure Doesn't Satisfy

Ecclesiastes 2:12-26

If we are all going to die...
What's the point of wisdom?
(vv. 12-17)

“We read the news. We bury our children. Murders, thefts, bribes, fists, weapons, sex, lies, and weather patterns are used to brutalize people... We hate that what God created good has become like a rusty-nailed playground no longer fit for kids at play and cutting the skin of those who try. We hate this. The wise cannot pretend that all is well.”

Zack Eswine

If we are all going to die...

What's the point of wisdom?

(vv. 12-17)

What's the point of work? (vv. 18-23)

Wisdom and Work

Redeemed (vv. 24-26)

For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer.

1 Timothy 4:4-5

"It's not what a man (or woman) does that determines whether his (or her) work is sacred or secular, it is why he (or she) does it. The motive is everything." – A.W. Tozer

So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:31

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Galatians 2:20

Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:23-24

“Preach the gospel, die, and be forgotten.”

Nikolaus Ludwig von Zinzendorf

Intro:

Verse 1

What is our hope in life and death?

Christ alone, Christ alone.

What is our only confidence?
That our souls to Him belong.
Who holds our days within His hand?

What comes, apart from His command?

And what will keep us to the end?

The love of Christ, in which we stand.

Chorus

O sing hallelujah!

Our hope springs eternal;

O sing hallelujah!

Now and ever we confess Christ our hope in life and death.

Instrumental:

Verse 2

What truth can calm the troubled soul?

God is good, God is good.

Where is His grace and goodness known?

In our great Redeemer's blood.

Who holds our faith when fears arise?

Who stands above the stormy trial?

Who sends the waves that bring us nigh

Unto the shore, the rock of Christ!

Chorus

O sing hallelujah!

Our hope springs eternal;

O sing hallelujah!

Now and ever we confess

Christ our hope in life and death.

Instrumental: x2

Verse 3

Unto the grave, what will we sing?

Christ, He lives; Christ, He lives!

And what reward will heaven bring?

Everlasting life with Him.

There we will rise to meet the Lord

Then sin and death will be destroyed

And we will feast in endless joy,

When Christ is ours
forevermore.

Chorus x2
