OUR PURPOSE

God has called us to raise our children to know Him and to love Him with all their heart, soul, mind and strength (Deut. 6:4-9). Thus, our desire is to live for the glory of God and to encourage our children to do the same. The local church is a means of grace to help parents accomplish this task. The purpose of the RGC Co-op is to encourage, assist, and support homeschooling parents who are members, pursuing membership, or sponsored by a co-op member of Redeeming Grace Church. We want to provide a context where biblical relationships can grow between families, parents and kids. All co-op families must read and agree with RGC's statement of faith. Our desire is that participation in this Co-op will yield these relationships and will also stimulate academic growth as well as help for participating students.

WHO WE ARE

Redeeming Grace Church (RGC) Homeschool Cooperative (Co-op) exists to provide a supportive and encouraging community for homeschooling families as they pursue academic excellence and raising their children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4). The Co-Op is a setting where parents can receive assistance from each other in their existing home school program. Every family has a different reason and vision behind their choice to homeschool, and we aim to be a community of believers that encourages and supports each other on this journey and brings Glory to God in the process.

At our very core, the co-op is a Gospel based community, rooted in the love of Jesus Christ. By God's grace, through his word and Spirit, RGC seeks to transform students by the renewing of their mind after the image of Him who created them. We desire to bring into conscious subjection to God what has been redeemed in and through Christ.

The Co-op is open to members of Redeeming Grace Church and to families in our community with a sponsoring member. If you are not a member of RGC, you will need to be sponsored by someone in the church and meet with the Co-op leadership team for an interview.

WHAT WE DO

The RGC Co-op in partnership with parents hosts classes on Tuesdays (7th-12th grades) and Thursdays (K-12th grades) from September thru May. This co-op format assists parents as a compliment to their own homeschooling program. A typical co-op day may consist of up to 5 classes that may be enrichment and academically based, with a lunch break at 12:20. The academic classes can replace what you are currently using at home, as homework is a requirement for these types of classes. Enrichment type classes will engage your child in a fun filled environment for learning. We welcome children from K-12th grade, with childcare for those under kindergarten age

This is a volunteer driven ministry of RGC, it is run by parents for parents. Teachers are not paid, so if you join our community, come prepared to give your time in some way, shape or form. Many parents teach a class; however, as our community grows, we will be in need of teaching assistants and childcare. We are happy to teach and pour our strengths into your child(ren), and we ask those who join us to do the same. We do not have a preferred curriculum. All class subjects are based on what a volunteer is comfortable, confident, and interested enough to teach.

OUR MISSION

RGC co-op exists to encourage, support and build up the local community of believers on the journey of homeschooling their family. Our co-op intends to bring together homeschooling families to support each other in their calling of educating their children and teaching them about Jesus Christ. The goal is to provide a wholesome educational experience in small group settings working in a cooperative manner, with parents banding together as volunteers. We are here to support each other, and help instill a lifetime love of learning in each other's children.

OUR STATEMENT OF FAITH

Parents and teachers are asked to sign and declare they agree with our statement of faith in order to join the RGC co-op, this ensures we agree on the basics of our Christian faith.

1. We believe the Bible to be the inspired, inerrant, and infallible Word of God and of supreme and final authority in faith and life.
2. We believe there is one living and true God, an infinite, intelligent Spirit, perfect in all his attributes, and one in essence but eternally subsistent in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe in the fall of man; although originally created in the image of God, through the disobedience of Adam, man is born with a sinful nature and is unable to justify himself before God.
4. We believe that Jesus Christ being fully God became fully man, born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross, was raised bodily and resides at God's right hand and will personally come again.
5. We believe that salvation is a gift from God offered to all people, by his grace alone, not by works, and is accepted by a personal faith in Jesus Christ, whose precious Blood was shed on Calvary for the forgiveness of sins.
6. We believe the marriage covenant was created by God and is between one biological man and one biological woman. All other sexual relationships outside of covenant marriage are contrary to the Word of God.

CO-OP MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

- The family must be a member of Redeeming Grace Church or sponsored by a current member of RGC Co-op. Non member sponsorship must be renewed annually. Non- RGC families must be a member of a church and provide pastoral contact information.
- The conduct of all participants in co-op, both parents and students, will be consistent with the teaching of Scripture and in alignment to RGC's statement of faith.
- All speech and behavior will be wholesome, respectful, and honoring to one another and to Christ.
- All Co-op participants agree to settle disputes and conflicts by following the biblical model of conflict resolution (Matthew 18:15-17). If unable to resolve their differences, families may seek assistance from the RGC Co-op leadership team. In some cases, families may petition the pastoral team at RGC to provide Biblical counseling in order to resolve the situation. However, in all cases, families will always abide by the decision of the leadership team and/or pastoral team.
- All policies in the RGC co-op manual will be reviewed by both parents and students attending RGC Co-op.
- All students/parents will abide by the contents of the co-op policy manual; acknowledging the Co-op policy manual is a living document, and may be altered at any time.

- All policies found in the RGC co-op Policy manual will be supported and followed in good faith.
- At least one parent is required to be at Co-op while the child is in class.

WHAT WE ARE NOT

The Co-op is not a school and assumes no responsibility to provide legal covering for home schooling. Nor do we guarantee that participation in the Co-op will ensure any measurable result on any standardized achievement test. Parents in the Co-op are responsible for the academic progress of their children. When/if a student graduates in our homeschool graduation, the church or the Co-op is not graduating the student. The parent is graduating the student (so the church or Co-op name will not appear on the student's diploma.). Parents can choose not to graduate a student if they fail to meet the needed requirements.

We are not a drop off program. We are a “families helping families program.” Most teachers (*paid/for profit classes are the exception and will be noted as such on the schedule) are home-schooling parents who want the educational diversity of a Co-op setting. Parents who are not teachers will be assigned other helping positions. These teacher/helper positions are weekly, school-year long commitments. It is required that all enrolling families take a minimum of two classes (excluding drama), and more than two study hall periods per day are prohibited.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION – MATTHEW 18

If concerning behavior occurs including academic issues, the following course of action will be followed:

1. The teacher will clearly and gently identify and explain to the student the inappropriateness of his behavior/academic performance and instruct him in the correct way to conduct himself. The teacher will decide whether or not to notify the parents. Each conversation will be documented/dated.
2. If the student continues the behavior, the teacher will notify the student’s parents, and the parents will be responsible to correct the problem. Teachers may get the student’s parent involved during the class, and if necessary, send the student to study hall for the remainder of the class period or ask the parent to remove the child for the remainder of the class time. Each incident will be documented/dated. Teachers must inform the Team Members when this occurs.
3. The teacher will speak to the parent to make sure his/her expectations are clear and to see if there is anything more he/she can do to serve the student and/or parents. The teacher will continue to keep a written record of these discussions to track progress and change.

4. If the problematic behavior persists, the teacher may suspend or remove a student from class.
5. If further steps are necessary, the Team will involve an elder/pastor and the student could face a two-week suspension from all classes. The student will either receive no credit for the work missed or the teacher may work out a scenario for the student to make-up the work.
6. In rare instances, the student can be removed from Co-op for the remainder of the school year.
7. Any student arrested by the police may be suspended from Co-op for up to two weeks pending a discussion with the elders, pastors, the parents, and the Co-op leadership to determine the student's suitability for ongoing involvement in Co-op.
